Home Care Assistance Brings Awareness to Hospital to Home Care Program in Recognition of Heart Month

Home Care Assistance is the leading provider of post-hospitalization services following congestive heart failure or stroke, reducing avoidable readmissions for patients

(Dayton, Ohio – February 6, 2018) Home Care Assistance of Dayton, North America’s premier home care provider, offers post-hospitalization services to older adults following congestive heart failure or stroke. Statistics indicate that a large percentage of older adults are readmitted into the hospital within one month of discharge from a heart-related admission. One of the leading causes of hospital readmission or post-hospitalization recovery is the lack of support following a hospital discharge. Home Care Assistance is actively working to transform how caregivers help older adults recover by providing support and resources to patients and caregivers.

“As a leading cause of death and major cause of disability, a continuous conscious effort has been made to raise awareness about heart disease and stroke prevention,” said Mark Febus, Owner of Home Care Assistance of Dayton. “Our goal is to provide a smooth recovery process for older adults within our community to avoid hospital readmission.”

In observance of Heart Month, our caregivers demonstrate their level of expertise in post-hospitalization care services following discharge. Home Care Assistance caregivers provide monitoring, reminders and emotional support for older adults to successfully recover at home. Our caregivers hold themselves accountable for coordinating with the providers of the hospital or rehabilitation center to provide a smooth transition. While at home, our caregivers serve as a constant source of support, offering a variety of care services.

Clients of Home Care Assistance of Dayton receive professional and customized care plans at no additional charge.
